

Enfield Council's Inclusion Charter Workshop

Enfield Council is pleased to invite you to our Inclusion Charter Workshop taking place on Wednesday 16th June 2021.

We're committed to ensuring all children and young people in Enfield feel included in school, so they can thrive and reach their potential. We know that inclusion can mean different things to different people, so we want to work together to create a shared vision for our schools.

Overview

We're excited to bring together representatives from schools, early years providers, colleges, local authority services and health providers to take part in the workshop. The purpose of the workshop is to develop the vision for the Inclusion Charter.

Together we'll explore and discuss:

- Enfield's best practice examples of inclusion
- The principles of inclusive practice
- The creation and purpose of the Inclusion Charter

We're delighted to announce the following key speakers joining our workshop. Both speakers have experience of promoting inclusion from various angles and will kickstart the workshop with a national and local overview. The full agenda is attached to this email.

Key Speakers:

- Dame Christine Lenehan – Director of Council for Disabled Children
- Peter Nathan – Director of Education, Enfield Council

When?

Wednesday 16th June (15:30 – 17:30)

Where?

The workshop will be hosted via Microsoft Teams.

Places on the workshop are limited. To book your place, please email at louise.gayle@enfield.gov.uk who will respond to you by emailing the calendar invitation with the Teams link.
