

Do you support learners from Gypsy, Roma and Traveller backgrounds in your setting?

Come along to our Gypsy Roma And Traveller Good Practice Network Meeting where you can network, reflect, share good practice and problem-solve with other settings and our two hosts Chelsea McDonagh and Dr Róisín Byrne.

For any member of staff in an educational setting in Enfield who works with Gypsy, Roma or Traveller learners

Chelsea McDonagh

Chelsea is a researcher, Irish Traveller activist and writer. She provides consultancy on a wide range of issues affecting Gypsy and Traveller people including education, health, policy and politics. Chelsea is one of the co-founders of the Rom Belong programme, a KCL Widening Participation programme for Gypsy, Roma and Traveller pupils and is passionate about improving opportunities for young people.
