

North London Open Evening

An introduction into a career in Educational Psychology

Thinking of becoming an Educational Psychologist?

Would you like to use your psychological knowledge and skills to make a difference to children and young people, their families, schools, and their communities? Would you like to find out more about working as an Educational Psychologist? Why not attend our online open event and find out more about joining our profession?

Please note we are unable to offer any professional advice in this event.

The evening will be an opportunity to:

- ▶ Learn more about the training route to becoming an Educational Psychologist (EP)
- ▶ Learn about the work EPs do across different boroughs
- ▶ Ask questions to the team (current EPs and trainee EPs from London universities)
- ▶ Find out about the mentorship programme for those from underrepresented and minoritised ethnic groups

The evening is open to those at different stages of experience

Wednesday 6th July
5.30- 7pm
