

Ramadhān 1444 – March 2023

General Guidance

- The potential start date for Ramadhān this year is the 22nd or 23rd of March, which means about four fasts before the BST time starts.
- The potential date for Eid is the 22nd or 23rd of April.
- Most dates depend on moonsighting; however, some Muslims may follow guidance on the fixed dates to start the month of fasting and the day of Eid.
- Many schools will close for Easter break from 31st March to 17th April (please check your Local Authority dates) - some of the nights of Qadr fall during this time.

Top tips for teachers:

- Being mindful that Muslim students would be fasting. Fasting could potentially impact some learning, for example, being unable to concentrate fully.
- Also, remember that sleep patterns may be affected as some students go to the mosque at night to offer prayers and take part in reciting the Holy Qur'an.
- Arrange for quiet places during lunchtime so students can offer prayers and if they want to rest in a quiet area.
- Students who are younger and have not reached the age of puberty may fast to experience and be part of the family's religious observance.
- Fasting is not compulsory for anyone who is ill or due to old age or an expecting/ nursing mother. However, there are various rules regarding this. Please ask for guidance where needed.
- For girls - during their monthly cycle, they are exempted from fasting. However, these have to be repaid before the following month of Ramadhān.
- Finally, use the opportunity to develop Religious Literacy so that there is an understanding among peers.

Top tips Subject leaders:

- Point to note for any Easter catchup lessons- these could be scheduled with a late start so that students can lie in before the session.
- Also, where possible, avoid Fridays so students can participate in the Friday prayers at their local mosque.

Top tips for Headteachers:

- Breaking taboos that Muslims have a huge meal before and after fasting will help.
- Schools could be encouraged to provide lunch packs to the students who are on FSM and have fasted.
- Remember, for some students on Free School Meals, the school lunch is their main meal, so whilst a takeaway for the home will help.
- For some people, it's a reality with having only essential foods only. Some Muslim homes may be reluctant to approach food banks. Although some mosques have a hardship fund or food bank, there could still be some who may be hesitant to approach these. Hence supporting students whilst fasting can make it easier for the family too.
- During the Easter holidays, a basket of essential needs can be sent to the students on Free school Meals to support them during Ramadhān.
