

Francis Williams

Join us each term for Celebrating... a series of events that will introduce primary school students to amazing Black mathematicians, past and present.

Celebrating kicks off this November with the intriguing story of eighteenth century mathematician, Francis Williams, Jamaican mathematician, scholar, astronomer and poet

Join us on Wednesday 19 November for a fun, free, 50 minute digital workshop - click the buttons below to register your class

10am

For students aged 8 - 11

2pm

Meet our expert speaker Dr Luke Davis - theoretical physicist, mathematician and gifted artist undertaking ground-breaking research at the University of Edinburgh

Any questions? Email Maths@big-ideas.org